What:	Students of the Year is a philanthropic leadership development program for exemplary high school students. During the campaign, participants foster professional skills such as entrepreneurship, marketing, and project management in order to raise funds for The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society (LLS).	Man & Woman of the Year/Visionaries of the Year are 10-week philanthropic competitions for leaders in local communities across the United States. Candidates and their teammates raise funds for LLS in honor of local blood cancer survivors, Honored Heroes, and the Boy & Girl of the Year. The title “Man or Woman of the Year” or “Visionary of the Year” is awarded to the candidate whose team raises the most funds during the competition. The top candidate in the country are awarded the national title.
Why:	The mission of The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society (LLS) is to: Cure leukemia, lymphoma, Hodgkin’s disease and myeloma, and improve the quality of life of patients and their families. LLS is the world’s largest voluntary health agency dedicated to blood cancer. LLS funds lifesaving blood cancer research around the world and provides free information and support services.
When:	High school students looking to make a difference.	Local leaders with a passion for fundraising.
